

→ This tool is to be filled-in by healthcare providers together with patients. The provider reads the questions and write the answers

Safely taking PPIs stomach acid pills

Starting at the beginning

Do you know why you are taking PPIs? Yes No

Describe what you feel, what are the signs

- Heartburn
- Burning sensation behind or rising up the breastbone
- Pain or discomfort below or behind breastbone
- Upper abdominal bloating
- Sour taste in mouth
- Other? Please write below.

Please mark on the drawing where the patient feels pain or discomfort

How often are you taking the PPIs?

	Yes	No
Twice a day?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Once a day?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Other?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Are PPIs working? Do not know

Are you taking a blood thinner or aspirin?

If changing the dose is an option, this is the plan

If stopping is an option, this is the plan